1. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Romer teaches a porous tube valve assembly but does not disclose a slidable valve member received in the tube. Cooney and McCann teach porous tube valves but do not disclose the fluid outlet to be an open end of the porous tube.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach a valve assembly that includes a porous tube that forms the outlet port of the valve assembly and a slidable valve member received in the tube that is used with a coaxial outer wall that includes the inlet port of the valve assembly.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
